stockings, bandages and plasters that make a package of the toes, trying blood-bringing razors and scissors. Then I tried "Gels-It" just once, and you ought to have seen that corn come off—just like a banana peel! It's simple, wonderful. It's the new way, painless, applied in two seconds, never hurts healthy flesh or irritates. Nothing to press on the corn. Never fails. Quit the old ways for once and try "Gels-It" tonight. For corns, calluses, warts and bunions.

"Gels-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or Prizes for Growing Pigs in Vermont.

The Vermont State Bankers' association has made available through the Vermont agricultural extension service, $100 in cash prizes for meritorious effort in a pig club.

Any boy or girl in the state, 10 to 18 years inclusive, is eligible to enter the contest. Enrollments must be made not later than April 25. The contest will be held May 1 and close Aug. 31. (Local contests may be continued until Dec. 1, so as to get benefit of fall feeding, local exhibits, etc.) Each member must secure at the opening of contest, at least one pig from four to 12 weeks old, and care for same in person, and must keep a careful record of his work throughout the contest.

The work will be graded and the prizes awarded on a four-point basis.

Rate of gain, 20 per cent; cost of gain, 40 per cent; quality of pig, 20 per cent; record and story, 20 per cent.

The prizes will be: (a) In each county a first prize $3, a second prize $2, a third prize $1; (b) in the state a sweepstakes prize—state champion $10, a second best state prize $5, a third best state prize $1.

The extension service will furnish further details to each member on enrollment, blanks for records and reports, seasonal helps and other follow-up instructions from time to time during the contest.

Send enrollment at once and address all correspondence to E. L. Ingalls, Agricultural Extension Service, Burlington.

MORE RHEUMATISM

THAN EVER BEFORE

Clergymen, Lawyers, Brokers, Mechanics and Merchants Stricken

Our old friend Rheumatism is having his inning this year, and a few words of caution from one who knows all about it may not be amiss.

Wear rubbers in damp weather; keep your feet dry; drink plenty of lemonade, and avoid strong alcoholic drinks.

If rheumatism gets you, or sciatism, and you have sharp twinges, gnawing pain or swollen joints or muscles, you can get rid of all agony in just a few days by taking one-half teaspoonful of Rheuma one a day.

All druggists know about Rheuma; it's harmless, yet powerful; cheap, yet sure, and a 50-cent bottle will last a long time.
Ask the Red Cross Pharmacy or any druggist.—Adv.

IN BOSTON MARKETS

Selling Is Rather Slow and Prices Are

Easy.

Boston, April 5.—There is not much change in the local butter, cheese and egg markets from last reports. Customers are not plentiful in any of the markets and while prices are left unchanged, the feeling is a little easier. There is all the fresh butter that is wanted at the prices it commands and not a few dealers are getting a little more stock than is required by the regular trade. It is not possible to obtain much more than cost on the surplus supplies in competition with storage stock, and sellers are glad enough to get out at cost rather than take a chance of being caught with high-priced goods on hand in the event of a break. The cheese market is still sustained by the fact of the possibility of export business rather than by a good demand or a lack of supplies. There are eggs enough for wants and prices are no more than steady.

BEER CATTLE LOWER.

Arrivals at Brighton and Watertown

Stockyards Heavier.

Brighton, Mass., April 5.—Lower prices were noted for beef stock at the Brighton stockyards yesterday morning, but calves and hogs were unchanged, and lamb also were firm and unchanged.

Arrivals for the week at both Brighton and Watertown were heavier, the figures for the week being 86 cars against 78 for the preceding week. Arrivals for the day at Brighton were 18 cars from the Boston & Albany. During the week arrivals at Brighton included 22 cars from New York state, nine cars from the Boston & Maine, and four cars of hogs and five cars of cattle from the West. Arrivals for the day at Watertown were 16 cars.

Beef cattle were easier, though one choice pair went at about 9c. The general range for tops was 8@8 1/2c, with good cattle at 7 1/2@8c, and light cattle at 6 1/2@7c.

Cows were easier and a few fancy sold at over 6 1/2c. The range for tops generally was 6@6 1/2c, good cows selling at 5 1/2@5 3/4c, ordinary cows at 4 1/2@5c and calves at 3 1/2@4c.

Hogs were unchanged, best lots selling at 9 1/2@10c, with some shippers trying to get more. Rough lots brought 9@9 1/2c, and boars 4@4 1/2c.

Lambs continued scarce, and anything at all choice readily brought 9@10c. The full range was 7@10c for lambs and 6@7c for sheep.

Strings of milch cows were moderate in size, the market being slow and draggy. Some poor cows sold as low as $3.50, but good milkers brought from $60 up to $100, fancy milkers selling at $100 or bet-

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Since March meeting day, it has cost Ludlow nearly $500 to break roads through the snowdrifts, and in the same length of time Cavendish has spent about $700 for the same purpose.

By offering many premiums, the Rutland County Farm bureau is endeavor-having recruited his company to the maximum peace strength, is now endeavoring to secure a machine gun crew in case the state is fortunate enough to obtain one of these guns to add to its equipment of the National Guard.

Dr. Ernest Tracy and Dr. A. L. Pattee had a short but exciting battle with a muskrat Saturday night on the corner of Main and High street in Brattleboro. The animal eluded all their attempts and only succumbed when a third man with heavy boots came to their aid.
One kick from the boots left the muskrat lifeless.

Figures for the fiscal year ending March 31, show that the Brattleboro postoffice has forced Rutland from second place in Vermont by showing receipts of $62,375 as against $61,908 for Burlington. Brattleboro is first in the list. Brattleboro has added a new regular carrier, Edward F. Lindsey, bringing the total up to eight.
